

About us

RedTech Recruitment is a leading technical recruitment consultancy.

Our roots trace back to helping STEM Graduates through to Post-Doc Researchers find their dream careers in industry.

Thanks to our expert guidance, many graduates return to RedTech for their future roles. Hence, in early 2023, we opened our Experienced Hires division, now covering all aspects of IT & Tech Recruitment.

If you're looking for high-calibre tech talent, we are the experts in this field.

Our co-founder, Rebecca, is highly trained in Equity, Diversity & Inclusion, and offers a free diversity consultancy to any company partnering with us, while also ensuring we provide a diverse range of candidate profiles.

Our priority is ensuring that your experience with RedTech exceeds all expectations. Check out our 100% 5* review rating on Google making us one of the highest-rated UK agencies.
